Healthy Aging Fair in Alameda County

8/6 - Hundreds of seniors from across the East Bay bussed in to take advantage of the free health screens, important information, and fun activities available at the 13th Annual Healthy Aging Fair at Chabot College in Hayward, organized by the Alameda County Area Agency on Aging (AAA). Volunteers provided free BMI and blood pressure evaluations, talks about proper nutrition, and valuable information about the CCI and other health care changes.

San Diego County

- 8/6 - Care providers and others attended a United Domestic Workers of America - Homecare Providers Union (UDW) consumer presentation, learning more about enrollment options, the Choice Form, and additional resources. The fourth in a series since the CCI's opening in San Diego, these presentations will now also be available for UDW consumers and care providers in Riverside County. Future presentations will be posted to our Calendar.

Los Angeles County

- 8/7 - African American and Latino families who attended the Know Your Digits campaign launch at the Ascot Branch LA Library learned more about the CCI. The event, sponsored by Community Health Councils, Inc., encouraged adults to check their blood pressure levels on-site, and keep it at a healthy level by practicing healthy eating and exercise habits.
